

New Set Has Interesting Story

Sailing Ship On Brazil's Newest

On May 10, Brazil's future naval officers completed a 13 month training tour which took them to numerous ports of the world. The cadets made their jaunt aboard the Frigate Almirante Saldanha an imposing sailing ship patterned after those of the last century.

The ship is pictured on a 1.50Cr dark blue running the seas at full sail.

According to Manoel F. da Motta of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil the comm. was printed on the new press which was purchased from a Swiss firm.

Meager Plate Activity In April

New plate activity at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in the month of April was not too impressive. The 3c Presidential regular and the Aviation commem were the only items to have plate numbers assigned to them.

Those for the Presidential 3c regular, 400 subject plates, were numbered 24773-4-5-6-7-8-9-80.

Aviation 6c commem, 200 subject plates, numbered 24781-2-3-4-5-6.

Plates sent to press and printed from during April were:

Presidential 3c coil, 170 subject plates, numbered 24717-8.

Louisiana Purchase 3c commem, 200 subject plates, numbered 24767-8-9-70-71-72.

A quantity of Presidential low denomination plates were cancelled from further use in April. These are:

Presidential 3c coil—24434-5.

Presidential 3c regular—24452-3, 24321, 24326, 24542, 24336-7-8-9, 24350-1.

Presidential 1½c coil—22238-9.

Presidential 2c regular—24306-7, 23984.

Presidential 1c coil—23839-40.

On all the above cancelled plates there was a sufficient number of impressions from each to forestall the possibility of any rarities occurring.

Want Commem For Subway Opening

Canada's Postmaster General Alcide Cote has been on the receiving end of some legislative needling which urges him to produce a commemorative stamp marking the opening of the first subway transportation in Canada. This underground rail travel was built at Toronto and is to be put into operation in December.

To date Mr. Cote has been guilty of "ducking" any direct commitments on the matter. Members of Commons have pointed out to him that other means of transportation have been pictured on Canadian stamps—stagecoach, ship, train and airplane.

June Could Inspire A Wedding Stamp Collection

Clarence Swanson

When we think of the month of June most of us associate the month with weddings thus it seems appropriate to suggest a collection of wedding and wedding anniversary stamps as a possibility for a topical collection.

The first stamps that come to mind are the 138 issued in 1948 by Great Britain and various colonies to commemorate the Silver Wedding Anniversary of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. This issue with its high pound values is out of reach of many collectors but the 69 low values are well within the means of many.

Next on the list as I go through Book 1 of Scott's 1953 catalogue we find Egypt's wedding issues, which is quite a story and may not be ended yet. In 1938 Egypt issued a single stamp to commemorate the royal wedding of lovely Queen Farida and King Farouk.

However there were no male heirs from this marriage and the throne of Egypt requires a male heir. A divorce resulted and in 1951 King Farouk took a commoner Nairiman Sadek as a bride and a single stamp was issued to commemorate that marriage which took place May 6 of that year. A male heir resulted.

Now that marriage seems in difficulty but even if the marriage were dissolved a third bride of playboy Farouk would not be featured on the stamps of Egypt—but one can never tell.

Tonga No. 53 is next on the list. It was issued to commemorate the marriage of King George II to Princess Lavinia. This is all I find in Book One of the catalogue.

The old world with its monarchies are the source of nearly all wedding stamps so it is only natural that we find a greater number of such stamps in Volume Two of the catalogue.

First on the list we find Albania with its set of eight stamps and a souvenir sheet issued to commemorate the wedding April 27, 1938 of King Zog and Countess Geraldine Apponyi.

Another Balkan Country is next but the stamps issued came at an earlier date. In 1930 Bulgaria issued a set of four stamps each of a different denomination and color picturing Tsar Boris and Queen Ioanna. Special blocks consisting of four stamps one of each variety were printed and distributed to prominent people.

A set of three stamps each of a different denomination and color was issued by Greece in 1938 in honor of the wedding of Princess Frederika and Crown Prince Paul.

Great Britain's was not the only colonial empire to issue wedding stamps. Earlier in 1930 Italy and her colonies issued sets of stamps to commemorate the marriage of Prince Humbert of Savoy and Princess Marie Jose of Belgium. This set served a dual purpose for several varieties of the set were semipostals with the surtax going to the Italian Red Cross Society. It seems odd that Scott lists these semipostal stamps as regular issues.

To Japan goes the honor of the first wedding commemorative stamp issued. In 1894 a set of two stamps commemorated the 25th wedding anniversary of Emperor Meiji and Empress Haru. It featured Cranes and the Imperial Crest. Several years later in 1900 a single commemorative picturing boxes for rice cakes and marriage certificates was issued in honor of the wedding of Crown Prince Yoshihito and Princess Sado-Ko. Oddly enough neither of the wedding stamps of Japan picture the principals involved. In passing we point out that Japan issued the first 25th wedding anniversary stamp, the first marriage commemoratives and was the first country to issue two wedding stamps.

Vatican Definitives Issued April 23 Show Development World Famous Architecture

William Wonneberger, Jr.

"Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church; and to thee I will give the Keys to the Kingdom of heaven . . .". These words, spoken by Christ when he made Peter the head of His Church, are memorialized on the frieze around the dome and transepts of St. Peter's Basilica.

Peter, (derived from petra meaning rock) was originally called Simon who followed the life of a peaceful fisherman of Bethsaida. After the Crucifixion of Christ the Apostles spread to the far corners of the known world. Peter presided over the See of Antioch, where tradition claims he spent seven years.

About the year 42 he went to Rome where he was greeted by a small group of Christians. Peter spent twenty-two years in Rome spreading the Doctrine of Christ.

In the fateful month of July 64 A.D. Rome burned. The mobs began to mutter the name of Nero and claimed he started the fires to satisfy his ruthless desires. Upon hearing this, Nero blamed the Christians for the burning of Rome and ordered the persecution of the band that followed Christ's teachings.

In the massacre and bloodletting that followed St. Peter was captured and thrown into the Mamertine, a dreadful prison at the foot of the Capitol. Here he was left in chains for eight or nine months. He was finally sentenced to be crucified.

Peter faced his martyrdom with great calm and courage. In a final request he asked that he be crucified with his head down, because he claimed, he was unworthy to die in the same manner as his Master. The request was granted and Peter went to join Christ in the year 67. He was buried in a cemetery in the Via Cornelia.

Three stamps of this series pay tribute to the Prince of the Apostles, the 3 and 10 Lire regular stamps and the 50 Lire special delivery. The medallion of St. Peter on these three stamps is a reproduction from one of the statues in the basilica. The 3 Lire value shows the inscription over the tomb, while the 10L. and the 50L. special delivery show the tomb of the Apostle.

Pope Sylvester I

Pope Anacletus, the second successor of Peter, ordered a funeral chapel erected over the grave. This chapel remained until the reign of Pope Sylvester I. During his pontificate the Emperor Constantine was determined to house the tomb as he felt it should be. He ordered a large and magnificent basilica erected over the hallowed spot.

dirt in the excavating, one for each of the Apostles.

To Pope Sylvester I, fell the honor of consecrating the basilica. He is immortalized on the 12 Lire stamp with a sketch of the basilica as built by Constantine.

Pope Julius II

In 1464 the basilica threatened to collapse. The reigning Pontiff, Nicholas V, decided to demolish it and build a new basilica over the tomb. He gave this task to Bernardo Rossellino who began the work. The first stone was laid during the Pontificate of Julius II. He employed Bramante to plan the basilica. Bramante's idea was to build it in the shape of a Greek cross and crown it with a dome.

This was very similar to the plans of Julius who wanted to crown Constantine's basilica with a Pantheon. For his part in laying the first stone on April 18, 1506, and supervising the construction until his death, Julius II is depicted on the 20 Lire value with a drawing of Bramante's design.

After Bramante's death the plan of the church was changed from the shape of a Greek cross to that of a Latin cross, back to a Greek cross, and again to a Latin cross.

Air Inaugurals In East, Southwest

Seemingly, the moderate weather has brought the Post Office Department's schedule of new air-mail service to the highest pitch in months. Cities in the southwest are the next in line for June inaugurals most of them located in Texas and Arkansas.

There is also to be an inaugural in the east, but that one is to come without the usual application of a cachet.

Effective on or about June 9, air mail service will be inaugurated at Lancaster, Pa., and Philadelphia-Camden, Pa., over route A. M. 71.

No official cachet for first-flight covers will be authorized. However, souvenir covers received by the postmasters at these points, will be dispatched to first flights, if practicable.

Effective on or about June 16 airmail service will be inaugurated over segment 7 of route A. M. 82 from the terminal point Dallas, Tex., the intermediate points Tyler, Tex., Texarkana, Tex.-Ark., Hot Springs, Little Rock, and Pine Bluff, Ark., and (a) beyond Pine Bluff, Ark., the intermediate points Stuttgart and Helena, Ark., and the terminal point Memphis, Tenn., and (b) beyond Pine Bluff, Ark., the intermediate points Camden, El Dorado, and Magnolia, Ark., and the terminal point Shreveport, La.

Service at Magnolia, Ark., will not be inaugurated at this time. Appropriate announcement will be made when service is inaugurated at this point.

No philatelic covers should be sent to the postmaster at Magnolia until such time as formal announcement is made of inauguration of service at this point.

Special cachets will be provided for each stop point listed above, with the exception of Magnolia, Ark., and for the Air Mail Fields, Dallas, Tex., and Memphis, Tenn. The usual treatment of philatelic mail will be authorized.

First-flight covers sent to the postmasters at Dallas, Tex., Tyler, Tex., Texarkana, Tex.-Ark., Hot Springs, Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Stuttgart, Helena, Camden, and El Dorado, Ark., Memphis, Tenn., Shreveport, La., and to the District Superintendents, Postal Transportation Service, District 11, Dallas 1, Tex., and District 3, Memphis 1, Tenn., for dispatch from the Air Mail Fields, Dallas and Memphis, respectively, must be prepaid at the appropriate airmail postage rate.

Double postal cards and double post cards intended for return reply purposes are not acceptable as first-flight covers. All covers should be accompanied by a letter authorizing the holding of the covers for the first flight and requesting the application of the cachet.

Space approximately 2 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches to the left on the address side of all covers is required for the cachet.

An enclosure of medium weight should be placed in each envelope to obtain better impression of the cachet and postmark, and to prevent damage to cover or canceling machine.

No provision will be made for point to point covers. However, at request of collectors, covers receiving cachet will be given directional service only to an office designated by the General Superintendent, Postal Transportation Service, and served by the first flight in each direction, and will their be backstamped and dispatched onward to destination.

Tank Corps Association Will Sponsor Cachet

In connection with the General George S. Patton commemorative World Wars Tank Corps Association is going to sponsor a cachet. General Patton was considered an expert on tank warfare and therefore has a special niche in their hearts.

It was this group which carried on the campaign for the Patton stamp.

For details about the cachet write to national adjutant Tom White, 708 N. Wallace St., Indianapolis, Ind.

1953 Edition Of Air Letter Catalog

The American Air Mail Society has just released the 1953 Edition of its catalogue of Air Letter Sheets. Greatly enlarged, and with several countries completely rewritten, this 1953 edition now requires 148 pages, plus sturdy paper cover.

The 1953 Edition includes all items issued by any country in the world prior to March 15, 1953.

All items are carefully described and priced and each face different sheet is illustrated. There are more than 150 illustrations in the book of which some 130 are new this year.

A portion of the considerable expense involved in this replacement program was borne by proceeds from a legacy bequeathed to the society by the late Dr. Robert Paganini of Zweisimmen, Switzerland. The 1953 Edition has been dedicated to Dr. Paganini in recognition of his tireless efforts in the study and documentation of airpost material.

The present edition follows two previous complete catalogues (1949 and 1951) as well as the original listing which appeared as a section of Volume I of the Large American Air Mail Catalogue. A supplement to the 1951 Edition appeared in 1952. The present edition is again a complete Catalogue in itself—not a supplement.

Users will be pleased to note that the FORCES and INLAND letters and OFFICIAL sheets previously segregated in Section II have now been incorporated chronologically in the main body of the catalogue. An innovation which will particularly appeal to collectors is a group of illustrations detailing the various types and styles of sheet folds which have been utilized by various countries. A reference to the type of fold is included with each individual listing. These drawings were executed by F. W. Kessler, one of the editors.

The book has been produced by an editorial board headed by L. B. Gatchell, editor of publications for the American Air Mail Society. Also included are Harold G. Fisher, Walter R. Guthrie, Sam Hantman, Gordon F. Johnson, F. W. Kessler, George D. Kingdom, Barry M. Kostenko, Robert J. Lyon, Ian C. Morgan, Richard L. Singley, and Jules L. Wacht.

The price of the book is $2.50 post free. It may be ordered from most dealers or direct from the American Air Mail Society, P.O. Box 519, Albion, Pa.

Special Postmark For Exhibition

A special piece of postal stationery was issued in Italy to mark the European Philatelic Exposition held in Venice from May 7 to May 17, according to P. Ostrow.

The card bears an imprinted 20-line stamp in blue green, of entirely new design—a "crowned Italia" facing left, in simple and attractive format. At the left of the card is a reproduction of the arms of Venice, as taken from the old Venetian letter sheets, with the inscription "ESPOSIZIONE FILATELICA EUROPEA."

The cancel consists of the coat of arms of Venice, with the same identification "VENEZIA."

WHY?

"The big collections are being sold to Miner Stamp Company."

One excellent reason for this continuing trend is simply this: When you shop for groceries you know that instead of buying the butter in one store, the meat in another and the milk in still another it's simpler to get them all in the super market. Not only easier and more pleasant but you usually save a little on each item which adds up quickly to many dollars. The comparison is this: when you sell you can find a dealer who will pay one dollar for this stamp two dollars for that one and a few dollars for another one. And then you have had it. Rather, he has the few choice and you have the cheese parings. What you want is one dealer who sells stamps, all kinds of stamps. He will be the dealer who buys stamps, all kinds of stamps.

We buy stamps all year round without interruption. High market or low market you see that offer here. Our needs are not only year round, they are complete. Whether it is a specialized collection, a general collection, mint sheets or blocks, an accumulation or a general stock we will buy it now for cash.

We pay for value and figure for value every item in every lot. For individual items we will pay the top price higher than most advertised prices. For mixed lots we will figure them the same way and pay the same per item top price. Ship now for immediate action or if it's big enough we will come to where you are. Get the other bids first and if you wish, then get the high bid here. Either way you'll soon see why "The big collections are being sold to Miner Stamp Company."

AUSTRALIA. All recently issued stamps of Australia look good. Things have been moving so rapidly philatelically, that many collectors missed some of these stamps which were available at low prices when issued. Prices for these stamps advance rapidly when they are superceded.

In September, Australia will issue three postage stamps to commemorate the sesquicentenary of the settlement of Tasmania. There will be two 3½ pence designs and a two shilling design. The 3½ pence stamps will be of small size and will be issued as a pair within the same sheet. They will portray Lieutenants Collins and Paterson. The two shilling stamp will be of double size and will depict a view of Sullivan Cove, Hobart.

The Postmaster General states that the decision to issue the two 3½ pence stamps as pairs on the same sheet was not intended as a gesture to collectors, but, as heretofore, to facilitate production.

It is also announced that the three Australian Coronation stamps will be on sale for approximately two months.

NORFOLK ISLAND. It is officially announced that the six new stamps scheduled for release on June 10 will be in addition to the twelve current stamps, so that there will be 17 stamps in the complete series.

This small island of less than 14 square miles and a 1947 population of less than 1,000, hardly requires 17 different values of postage stamps to take care of its postal needs. They are evidently issued chiefly to gather dollars from collectors.

ST. LUCIA. W. E. Fynden in Stamp Collecting (London) says that the 1951 Castries Reconstruction Fund stamp, #151, is a "buy at best" item. With only 137,343 copies issued for a popular colony like St. Lucia, supplies have been absorbed and this stamp is in demand and now scarce.

GREAT BRITAIN. The 1939 one Pound stamp #209 is scarcer than the Scott catalogue price of $32.50 would indicate. In London the demand decreased for a time, as a result of release of these stamps held by speculators and the Gibbons price is now 12 Pounds.

This surplus has been absorbed and this stamp should be worth buying at today's price.

SAMOA. The 1935 pictorial set, No. 166-174 is in demand and should be bought while still at or near new issue prices. This set is getting quite scarce and a substantial increase in price can be expected.

SOUTHERN RHODESIA. The three pence Victory stamp #69 is in very short supply and many collectors are buying the set of four stamps in order to obtain this three pence item, which is popular, probably due to the fact that it has a large portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, as Princess. This set is now available at around 20c mint and can be expected to advance.

New Issue Of Brazil Regulars

A new definitive series of postage stamps is in the making for release December 13 advises Manoel F. da Motta of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Designs are to picture maritime and fluvial navigation, and the portraits of naval heroes of Brazil.

An open competition for the preparation of satisfactory artwork to grace these regulars was announced by the postal administration. Eight will picture respectively a caravel, canoe, raft, unloading boat paddle steamer, merchant ship, training ship and warship. Naval heroes are to be shown on four.

Brazil's new stamp printing press is to be used for these and most of the six colors it is capable of printing at one time are expected to be found on the new issue.

On July 13 a 60c commemorative is expected for the 10th International Congress which will be held at Rio de Janeiro from that date to the 17th.

November 17 will see a set of five issued to mark the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Petropolis Treaty which incorporated the Acre Territory to the national patrimony.

Designs and denominations are to be: 20c Acreano Coat of Arms; 40c Acreano Flag; 60c Map of the Acre Territory; 1.20Cr. pictures

New Blood Needed

We find in the May number of Stamp Collecting, one of the leading British Philatelic Journals, a complaint similar to what has often been voiced in this country with relation to our postage stamp designs.

GEORGE W. LINN

It might be best to quote this item from Stamp Collecting so that you can have it in the words of the writer and not in any choice of words that we might use if we try to explain just what has been said, so here is the item.

"Bring on the Designers" "The article on the new Bermuda designs printed elsewhere in this issue forcibly reminds us that there is much hidden talent which colonial governments have hitherto neglected in their search for stamp designs. Inevitably—and how obvious it is in the case of British stamp design—when designs are invited from a small band of well-tried artists the results have a sameness about them. The artists are, perhaps, both tried and tired. Fresh ideas in layout and treatment do not come readily to craftsmen drilled to a certain school of art. New work by new artists cannot fail to bring a freshness of approach to the problems which admittedly surround the designing of a stamp. Few forms of art require that the finished product shall be pleasing and intelligible within the small compass of a square inch or so of paper. Let us have more open competitions like those recently held for new stamps of Bermuda, Kenya and Solomon Islands."

We can not of course quote in full the article on the new Bermuda stamp designs referred to in the above paragraph, suffice to say most students of stamps know of the competition that was held for new stamp designs for Bermuda for much has already been printed on this subject. The point is that the British like ourselves have become fed up by the sameness in stamp design that has been due wholly to the fact, as pointed out in this article, that—"when designs are invited from a small band of well-tried artists the results have a sameness about them. The artists are, perhaps, both tried and tired. Fresh ideas in layout and treatment do not come readily to craftsmen drilled to a certain school of art."

There have been times when criticism of our own stamp designs have been voiced over here and although perhaps not said in such a naive way, the facts are just as apparent.

Stamp designing has seen great changes in the past few years. There is ample reason for this change and the need for change. Perhaps one thing that has brought about the change more than anything else has been the progress in the art of printing rather than in designing. With the modern printing methods it has become possible to use designs and produce colorful stamps that are unlike anything

The June 29 edition will be sponsored by the Italy Stamp Group. Dealers who would want to be represented in that edition with special advertisements within that field of collecting must have their copy in our offices by June 17. Mark such copy "For the Italy Special Edition".

in the past. Many designs which would be almost prohibitive in fine engraving are now produced by new printing methods that permit work that could not be readily produced from engraved plates. Much of this work is very beautiful and wise Postmaster Generals have seen the possibilities of catering to—shall we say the stamp collecting hobby—for the greater sale of their postage stamps. Blame it on collectors if you will, but it is a fact we can not get around.

Steel engraving has its limitations. True, some of the world's most beautiful stamps are the early engraved issues. But even these can not compete in eye appeal with modern printing methods and that fact alone has a great bearing on stamp designing.

In our own Bureau at Washington we have been plagued in the past by that same "small band of well-tried artists". We have engravers who specialize in the lettering, others in certain particular parts of the design. For many years we had an engraver whose specialty was acanthus leaves. For years back you can find the acanthus leaf worked into our stamp designs. This motif must have been inherited from the American Bank Note Company for we can trace it back to those days.

What is needed most is new ideas, originality, something different, something modern and in keeping with today.

Our Presidential issue was a bold step away from designs of the past. The stamps were the result of a nation wide competition and they have served well and pleasantly for about fifteen years. In a few more years they will have set an all time record for a single issue of stamps. The designs are pleasing, they are different than anything in the past and different than anything that has come since, for after that one trial with outside designers we have dropped back to the same "well-tried artists" of the past.

So like the British we can only say, "let us have more competitions... for new stamps."

More About Albums

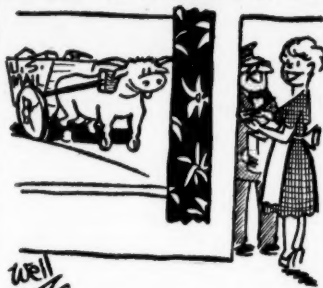

Lest we be misunderstood in our remarks about albums as made last week, let us add this bit of advice. By all means, if you are a beginner or a new collector and want for the time being to collect generally, until you get to the point where you will be able to determine just what course you wish to follow, then get for yourself as large an illustrated album as you can afford and start filling the spaces. Nothing you can do will teach you about stamp and stamp collecting so quickly and so naturally as this form of collecting. Then when you have found out just what will interest you most you can branch out and go into the blank album.

Lest You Forget

Remember, this is our birthday year. In the fall, your favorite stamp paper will be 25 years old. In these 25 years we have built up the world's greatest weekly Philatelic Newspaper. Circulation is the real measure of success and we believe that we now have a greater circulation than has ever before been attained by any stamp publication.

There is a reason for this. It is because we have found so many

DOUBLE IMPRESSIONS—by Well

"Yoo Hoo, dear! Your stamps finally came... and remember that crack you made?"

Statistics About Recent Vaticanans

February 12, 1953 the Vatican Postal Administration issued a set of two stamps to commemorate the "Fiftieth Anniversary of the Martyrdom of Saint Maria Goretti". The stamps were of the 15 Lire and 35 Lire values printed by the photogravure method in sheets of 60 stamps arranged in eight rows of eight stamps.

In the upper right corner of each sheet appears a description translated to read "A sheet of 60 stamps value 900 Lire/2100 Lire". This tab occupies a space equivalent to four stamps and to date is the only Vatican issue to appear this way. The printing was made on paper watermarked with Crossed Keys at the State Printing Office in Rome. The designer is new to philately, Casimira Dabrowska.

April 23, 1953, the new series of regular issues made its debut and officially called, "The Popes of the Vatican Basilica". The stamps were printed from engraved plates in sheets of 40 stamps on paper watermarked with Crossed Keys at the State Printing Office in Rome. The entire set was designed by Professor Corrado Mezzana just before his death last fall.

The engraving was done for the 3, 10, 60, 65, and 50 Lire special delivery by V. Nicastro, Inc.; the 5 and 65 Lire regulars and the 85L special delivery were done by T. Cionini, Inc.; the 12 and 25 Lire values by S. Vana, Inc.; the 20 and 35 Lire stamps by M. Colombati, Inc.; and the 45 Lire value by F. Pagani, Inc.

The final date of validity has not been announced at this time for either of these two issues, according to William Wonneberger, Jr. of Bridgeport, Conn.

The Vatican Postal Administration advises that a set of two air-mail stamps is "under study". The probable values will be 300 and 500 Lire to replace the Gratianus air mails invalidated on December 31, 1952.

Open Three Post Offices in Israel

Three new Israeli post office openings and one commemorative cachet are recorded by P. Ostrow, Elizabeth, N. J. The new post offices are Quiryat Hayim (in honor of Hayim Arlosoroff) — March 3, 1953; Quiryat Bialik (in honor of Hayim Nachman Bialik) — April 15, 1953, and Asqon — May 3, 1953. The new commemorative postmark honors the Histadrut, Israel's Socialist but anti-communist Labor movement. It was placed in use on May 3 at Raanana and incorporates into the postmark a sketch of the new Histadrut building there.

friends among the collectors of the nation. We have in turn tried to befriend them, sometimes at direct cost in loss of advertising patronage from those who have become offended because we felt it our first duty to protect our readers with the truth about certain stamp facts.

We shall continue in this policy and hope for even greater growth. We ask your help in this project. It is so easy, so simple. All you need do is to renew your subscription for two years when you renew again and in doing this send us the name and address of a new or old collector who is not now a subscriber to our paper and we will put their name on our list for one year's subscription at no extra cost to you. That gives us what every publication must have, new blood, no paper can hope to live without adding NEW names to its subscription list. Will you help? Help us go over the 40,000 mark this year even if we can not hope for 50,000.

Post Office Is For Royalty Only

How many people know that Buckingham Palace, the huge official residence of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, has its own post office? It is in front of the palace; a low building, set back behind pillars at the far left-hand corner.

It is quite an ordinary post office with counters, clerks, telephonists, teleprinter operators and men who code and decode the messages that flow to and from all parts of the Commonwealth.

The general public cannot use it but it is extremely busy nevertheless, dealing with an enormous amount of correspondence of every kind. Messengers, footmen, clerks and secretaries from the offices up and down the six-hundred-roomed palace come in a steady stream to hand piles of letters over the counter.

Soldiers may be seen there sometimes because their guard room is next door and they are allowed to use the post office to buy their stamps and postal orders when they are on duty at the palace.

When the morning post arrives from the sorting office the letters, packets and parcels are sorted again. Footmen or pages take the mail to the various offices the Queen's private secretary's, the press secretary's, the master of the household's and many more. Other mail has to be sent on in special bags to Windsor, Balmoral or other residences when some number of the royal family is away. The Court Postmaster is unusually busy nowadays because two complete households live in Buckingham Palace, the Queen's and the Queen Mother's, and the Duke of Edinburgh has his own staff too.

Apart from this routine business his responsibilities include the teleprinters connecting Windsor, Balmoral and Sandringham with Buckingham Palace, and the big telephone switchboard with 180 extensions, which is in addition to the palace's many internal telephones with their miles of wiring.

Much of the palace telephone system has recently been thoroughly modernized for the Queen, her husband and their staffs use the telephone much more than the late King did.

Busy as the Buckingham palace post office usually is, at the time of the coronation, and weeks before, the staff was snowed under with mountains of mail and other communications and packages.

JOHN B. KILTON

100 Empire St. Providence 3, R. I.

BY CARL P. RUETH

I have just returned from Dayton and the first day of issue ceremonies of the 50th Anniversary of Aviation airmail commemorative. In many respects it was the equal of any like celebration I have attended through the years—I ain't no kid no more—and tremendously better than most.

Yet with all the many commendable things which were on hand, there was one which left a bitter taste in the mouths of members of the Dayton Philatelic Society, a number of Dayton citizens, and one hardworking individual.

As you know in 1949 Carl Soendlin, secretary of the Dayton Philatelic Society exerted strenuous efforts to have the first day of the issue of the Wright commemorative for Dayton. Due to the fact that there was no one from either club or the city to wine and dine the POD brass to wangle the first day, eastern schnooks who could and did, promoted the first day for Kittyhawk, N. C.

Foreseeing the 50th anniversary of the Wright's successful flight in 1953, Carl Soendlin and the Dayton club began a campaign to have such a stamp issued and to have the first day in Dayton. Carl made at least one visit I know of to the Department in pursuit of such a stamp.

In the intervening years he has written hundreds of letters to public officials, local, statewide and nationally to get "push". Last year when things looked black he sent letters to the aircraft manufacturers, and the airlines, urging their support with letters to the POD.

In the last two and a half years he has put much time, typewriting, and cash into the campaign. When the stamp was announced, Soendlin felt quite pleased—and certainly he had good reason. He and the Dayton Philatelic Society laid plans for a fine exhibition and a bang-up first day ceremony.

Then an "outfit" decided that such a stamp would be a fine one to have issued during their so-called convention. So they whopped up a convention on the spur of the moment, pulled strings to have the stamp released at a convenient week end, the Decoration Day, and moved in and took over.

At the first day ceremonies in connection with a large scale luncheon, Carl Soendlin wasn't recognized for his work in promoting the issue, he wasn't on the guest of honor dais, in fact, for all the "outfit" was concerned he was just one of the audience.

And an honor and a privilege which should have been his above all, the receiving of one of the commemorative albums which the Department presents on such an occasion, was never given.

The officials of the Post Office Department could have been generous in this matter. If they had asked the right people about it, they would have been advised.

Assuredly a national organization which poses as an association for the promotion of airmail philately could have been big enough to have seen that proper amenities were made. They didn't.

This situation once again proved that there are just a few big wheels in the East who have the time and the money to run to Washington for favors, and to press their views of things. Publications and collectors in the rest of the United States can't get to the POD brass to "influence" them.

As one of the people at our table said to Bob West of Chillicothe, Ohio (he designed and worked for the issuance of the Ohio Sesqui commem), "Brother you can thank your lucky stars this 'outfit' didn't move in on you and trample you out of existence."

1. At the time the 4-H commem was issued in 1952 most collectors knew what the H's in the four-leaf clover insignia of the group meant. Do you know now?

2. What United States general is shown directing the evacuation on the Battle of Brooklyn stamp?

Probably the most splendid, and without doubt the most informative souvenir program in connection with a first day, was produced for this occasion. It is to be regretted that extras of them were not available. I believe many would have appreciated the opportunity of purchasing one or more copies.

I understand that the quantity printed was limited to the expected attendance, one per person, at the luncheon Friday noon. For what they probably cost to be produced, this is understandable.

Mine bearing a copy of the stamp with a neat hand cancel, goes into the ever-growing collection of such programs. It will probably be one of the scarce ones of recent times.

Whoever conceived and edited this item deserves a resounding "Well Done".

At the post office in the Biltmore Hotel there were stacks of well centered sheets of the new commem—all numbers, all positions. Besides that, there were gobs of sheets of approximately 25 of the most recent commems.

Presiding over this array of "stickers" was Jesse Schlegel from the Dayton post office, who just completed two terms as president of the Dayton Philatelic Society. Jesse is one of the most patient and helpful fellows I know, and the persons who kept him busy with their stamp purchases will agree with me.

And matching his congeniality were Charles Johns and Orville Hilliard who did the cancelling of the covers which were offered at this convention station. They had just the hand cancel here, but it was identical to the one at the Dayton post office.

The machine cancel was given only at the post office. It too reads like the hand device "FIRST DAY OF ISSUE/AMERICAN AIRMAIL SOCIETY/CONVENTION STATION", but in smaller format.

The Convention Station legend in the killer bars is 100% incorrect for the automatic cancelling machines were never near it. I believe all cover fans know the date they get on the FDC's is the one of the first day of issue, imprinted thereon plus, or minus a couple of weeks of the actual day.

The old plain "FIRST DAY OF ISSUE" would have been according to facts and would not have been compounding the usual first day cover fiction.

But regardless of where the covers were cancelled collectors were served by very cooperative postal clerks. That is to the credit of the Post Office Department and Dayton's postmaster Harry Schiewetz.

Ah! To be young, and handsome, and a jet pilot—and especially the two jet pilots who were to fly the special flight of jet mail to Washington Saturday afternoon at 3:30 from Wright-Patterson field.

I think both these boys got a new estimate of cover collectors. I also think if they didn't get someone to massage their writing arms, they should be grounded for their own safety.

In the course of the introductions at the luncheon First Lieutenants Wilfred Diaz of St. Louis, and Arlie Sanders of Miami, Florida were presented to the diners as the pilots who would fly the jet mail. That did it!

They signed so many covers and programs that towards the end they couldn't hold their pens anymore. They were extremely good sports about the ordeal. Happily, they were at our table and yours truly had a cover under their noses to autograph before you could say "Please pass the biscuits". It was duly stamped and sent on the jet flight.

Charles R. Hook, deputy postmaster general did the honors for the Post Office Department. To his credit he chose to forego the usual malarkey dished up on such occasions and had interesting remarks from his opening "Fellow Philatelists" (given with tongue in cheek). He admitted that he now knows what a first day cover and a plate block are, which qualifies him as one of the "family".

Welcome, Mr. Hook, and happy hours.

Commemorative albums were presented to Philip Ebeling, president of the Chamber of Commerce; General James Doolittle; Maj. Gen. Charles I. Carpenter, Chief of Chaplains, Dept. of Defense (as principal speaker gave an inspiring talk); Jesse Johnson AAMS president; Congressman Paul F. Schenck; Mayor Louis Lohrey; Milton Wright, a relative of the famous brothers.

It is to be regretted that the special jet plane flight on May 30 from Dayton to Washington was not made a certainty sooner by the Post Office Department. Confirmation officially of this stunt reached the various philatelic publications at too late a date to do their readers any good.

A special cachet was authorized and impressed on envelopes at the Dayton post office as late as Friday night the 29th. The mail was then placed aboard an Air Force plane at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base and whisked to the capital the next day.

Only those in Dayton for the first day of the new airmail found it possible to make use of the stamp on this flight. I am of the opinion that more covers went out with it than all the other air stamps combined.

1. The four H's stand for Head, Heart, Hands, Health.
2. George Washington.

First Day of Issue.

WESTERN GERMAN MUSEUM, RED CROSS ISSUES. On May 7 a semipostal stamp was issued with a value of 10 plus 5pf which marked the 50th anniversary of the German Museum at Munich. The stamp, in green, pictures a stylized owl perched on a half sprocket. The post office supplied a special cancellation for the first day. Henri Dunant, founder of the Red Cross was remembered on the 125th anniversary of his birth by the 10pf green with a Red Cross shown on the cover at the top. First day was May 8. Both are shown through the courtesy of Joseph F. Barron of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Artist, Navigator On New Airmails

Spain only printed so many of the 1947 airmails, Scott Nos. C123-4, and now since they have all been sold they will be replaced in late June or early July with corresponding denominations of 25 and 50 Pesetas. The new ones will be in the same vertical format but will have different portraits.

The coming 50Pts. will bear a portrait of the great painter Joaquin Sorolla, while the 25Pts. pictures Miguel Legazpi, navigator and conqueror of the Philippines. Sorolla gained his fame with pictures full of brightness, a number of them being of scenes of fisher folk and children playing on the Mediterranean seashore near his native Valencia. He also obtained a measure of fame from his portrait work.

One of his paintings can be seen on postal tax stamps of 1951, Scott Nos. RA 32-3, showing children at the seashore. The new stamp's portrait of Sorolla is from one he executed of himself.

Sorolla was born at Valencia February 27, 1863 and died March 11, 1923 in Cerdilla near Madrid.

While the 25Pts. will bring Legazpi again to the gallery of philatelic portraiture, the stamp will also be a tribute to the recent postal convention of Spain and the Philippines.

Legazpi was born in the early years of the 16th century at Zumarraga in the "vasconian" province in the north. The western world, known for less than fifty years at that time, intrigued him to the extent that in 1545 he was with an expedition to Mexico. He served as "escribano mayor" in the cabildo of the capital city.

His expedition of conquest to the Philippines was begun on November 21, 1563 when four ships under his command left Spain. On the way a stop-over was made at the Marshall Islands (the Ladrones, Spanish for robber, so named by Magellan in 1521 after dealings with the light-fingered natives). These were claimed for Spain.

Arrival in the Philippines occurred on February 13, 1564. By 1570 he had founded and built Manila, and in 1572 he was felled by a stroke of apoplexy.

Carlos Lenze, Barquillo 29, Madrid, Spain who supplied the information above advises that if collectors were a bit suspicious that an error had been made in the printing of the recent Spanish Sahara Geographical Congress issue, they were well founded.

The error was one of manufacture and all stamps are alike so no varieties are the result. The design has the form of a photographic negative. It was not intended to be that way. When the process was being carried out for the making of the plate at the Casa de Moneda the transfer of the negative to the positive plate was forgotten. After this sin of commission was discovered it was too late to do anything about it.

Senegal's first airmail stamps appeared in 1935.

For the next issue we travel to the small principality of Liechtenstein where we find an attractive set of three stamps issued in 1943 to commemorate the marriage of Franz Joseph II and Countess Georgina van Wilczek.

Last on the list we have Persia or Iran as it is now known and the story here is parallel to that of Egypt in part and a story of relations. In 1939 a set of five stamps was issued in honor of the wedding of Crown Prince Mohammed Riza Pahlavi to Princess Fawzia of Egypt. As in Egypt when Farouk divorced Farida of Iran the Crown Prince divorced Fawzia of Egypt. We must remember that many of these royal marriages are not the result of love but rather political marriages. Subsequently Riza Pahlavi remarried in 1951 and a set of six stamps was issued in honor of the wedding picturing him and his new bride Soraya Esfandiari.

In addition to the marriage and anniversary stamps there are some symbolic stamps that could be included in the collection such as Montenegro OS8 portraying a Moslem wedding procession, Norway A33 representing King Olaf sailing in a wedding procession of ships and Japan A80 showing the wedded rocks. Such a collection could be further broadened by including stamps of couples and family stamps showing families as a group or individually. Thus we find that wedding stamps have interesting possibilities for a topical collection.

The WILSON PLAN

Want to cut down on accumulating duplicates? Want to build up those weak countries economically? Then the Wilson Plan is the answer! Here is the idea in a nutshell. For example, you have, say 200 different Uruguay stamps in your collection. You decide you wish to increase it to 300. You deduct the difference in price from our list. Your 200 different are worth $1.95; the 300 different $5.50. You remit $3.55 difference. We send the 300. You remove the 100 you do not have, returning the 200 to us. It is that simple! Or you might decide to increase to 400 or 500. It can work on any size packet on any country from our list as long as the difference is $2.50 or more per country. Send for the WILSON PLAN APPLICATION and latest price list.

VATICAN DEFINITIVES

The next Pope who played a prominent part in the building of St. Peter's was Paul III. Pope Paul III has already become familiar to philatelists for his part in calling the Council of Trent and subsequent portrayal on the 10 Lire stamp of the Council of Trent series.

He entrusted the work to the aged Michelangelo. This genius undertook the task in his 72nd year and refused all offers of pay for his work. He reverted to the original plan of the design of the Greek Cross. Michelangelo enlarged the tribune, strengthened the piers of the dome, redesigned the chapels and apse, and designed the great crowning dome. To this day the dome is referred to as "Michelangelo's Dome".

The great genius left this world in 1564 with only the drum of the dome finished. Pope Paul III is honored on the 25 Lire stamp together with a view of the Apse (rear) of the Basilica.

Pope Sixtus V

The dome of the basilica was finished in 1590. The actual time of the building of the dome is disputed, some claim it took two years while others claim ten years elapsed before its completion.

The cost is also disputed. Some claim 200,000 gold scudi while others place it as high as 1,000,000. One thing is certain though, it was a marvelous feat of engineering. It took 600 workmen, skilled in their trade, laboring day and night to finish it.

The supplying of the materials to the workmen was a feat in itself. All supplies had to be raised 400 feet by crudely designed implements.

Pope Sixtus V is shown on the 35 Lire value together with a picture of the dome completed in his reign.

Pope Paul V

During the first year of the Pontificate of Pope Paul V (1605), the form of a Latin Cross was again adopted. Paul V wanted to cover the entire area occupied by the basilica and planned to do so with the longer arm of the Latin cross.

Carlo Maderno was now the architect in chief. He finished demolishing the rest of Constantine's basilica to make room for the longer nave and the partition wall was knocked down.

Under Maderno's direction the facade of the church was built. The facade is 369 feet long and 145 feet high. The top is crowned with 18 foot statues of Our Lord and the twelve Apostles.

Paul V was honored by the frieze that appears over the arch leading to the Vatican grounds (this arch is part of the facade). It is inscribed "In honorem Principis Apost. Paulus V Burghesius Romanus Pont. Max. AN. MDCXII Pont VII". This in English reads "In honor of the Prince of the Apostles, Paul V. Borghese, Roman Pontiff Maximus, in the year 1612, the 7th of his Pontificate". He is further honored by the 45 Lire stamp that bears his portrait along with a view of the facade.

Pope Urban VIII

During the reign of Pope Urban VIII the baldacchino was built over the tomb of St. Peter. The baldacchino rises one hundred feet above the Altar of the Confession and weighs 93 tons. In front of the altar is a sunken oval space with a marble balustrade. The altar itself is reserved for saying Mass by the Pope only. He reads the Mass while facing the congregation.

But the erection of the baldacchino canopy was not the most important part Urban VIII played in the history of the basilica. Maderno had finished the basilica and the Pope solemnly consecrated it on November 18, 1626.

Urban VIII is remembered for his role in building the basilica, on the 60 Lire value. Below the likeness of this Pope is a view of the baldacchino and the Altar of the Confession.

Pope Alexander VII

While Alexander VII was the reigning Pontiff, Giovanni Bernini was engaged to build the impressive colonnades. These two rows of columns are really the vestibule of St. Peter's. The colonnades are keyhole in shape, somewhat circular as you enter the square and then straighten out when you reach the basilica. They are purely ornamental and serve no positive need.

Each of the colonnades are 64 feet high and 61 feet wide. Between the two colonnades one can count 284 columns arranged in four rows. The spaces between the columns form three covered arcades with the center one in each colonnade wide enough to accommodate two automobiles driving abreast.

Atop the rows of columns are 162 statues 11 feet tall. The colonnades form the border of the Square of St. Peter. The square is 1,110 feet long and 786 feet wide.

In the center is the obelisk raised in 1586 by Pope Sixtus V (35 Lire Stamp) flanked by two fountains. Alongside the fountains are two red and white discs. When you stand on the discs the columns arranged in four rows are so placed that it seems as if only one row is there.

For his contribution of St. Peter's Square to the basilica, Pope Alexander VII is shown on the 65 Lire value with a section of one of the colonnades.

Pope Pius VI

When Pius VI assumed the responsibilities of the Papal Throne the basilica proper and its square were finished. Wishing to add to the church he set about to build the sacristy. It is a building in itself but attached to the basilica proper by means of two passageways.

The sacristy is located about the middle of the left side of the church and consists of four large rooms. Some of the art treasures found among them are the fluted pillars from the villa of the pagan emperor Hadrian, the vestment worn by Charlemagne when he was crowned the first Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Leo III, three rows of candlesticks and candelabra, many chalices and ciboriums.

To commemorate the erection of this addition, Pope Pius VI is depicted on the 100 Lire value over a view of the sacristy and the connecting passageway to the basilica.

Pope Pius XII

Pope Pius XII, the reigning Pope and 262nd successor of St. Peter, is portrayed on the 5 Lire regular stamp and the 85 Lire special delivery.

Pius XII contributed to the basilica by his great and active excavations below the church. These excavations have unearthed many startling discoveries hitherto unknown to the world. These diggings underneath the basilica are known as the Sacred Grottoes.

A visit to the Grottoes finds a sort of a basilica with a nave and two aisles artificially illuminated with great skill. The Grottoes have served as a burial place for Popes, Cardinals, and Sovereigns. They are now adorned with statues of personages of fame, chapels, and the life and history of the Popes buried there.

The new diggings by Pius XII have practically doubled the size of the Grottoes as they appeared during the reign of his predecessor, Pope Pius XI.

BARGAIN SALE

SOME ITEMS SOLD OUT OTHERS GOING FAST

Because of ever increasing costs and excessively high prices we are going to discontinue the greater part of our line of Philatelic Products. We have been contemplating this move for the past year or more for various reasons, among which are the ever soaring prices on merchandise of this character. Prices that have become so high that we almost feel ashamed of having to ask such prices for material. Also we feel that we can best devote our entire energies to the production and promotion of Linn's Weekly Stamp News which has grown to be considered by many as the leading American Philatelic Publication.

ALL OTHER ITEMS TO BE DISCONTINUED

All other items as listed below will be discontinued when present stock is sold. Much of this material is very desirable and at the new sacrifice prices we suggest that any who need pages or supplies will order as much as they can use at once. The cut prices on many of the items are for less than we can replenish our stock. Prices have advanced on some items to the point where if we should continue them we would have to advance the price to a much higher figure than heretofore, so we are closing out at prices lower than we could buy for again. This is your opportunity. ORDER NOW.

BOYS TOWN

A home and school for homeless, abandoned, neglected and underprivileged boys of every race, color and creed, Boys Town was founded by the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan, better known throughout the world as Father Flanagan of Boys Town, on December 12, 1917, in a two-story house in Omaha, Neb., on a borrowed $90.00.

In 1921 the project was moved to what was then known as Overlook Farm, consisting of 160 acres, located 10 miles west of Omaha on U. S. highways 6 and 30-A. Today Boys Town covers 1,000 acres and has an enrollment of around 750. As soon as facilities become available it is planned to enroll 1,000 boys.

Boys are accepted between the ages of 10 and 16. They can remain until they complete their high school education. More than 6,000 boys have called Boys Town their home. 1,000 Boys Town graduates saw service in World War II and 40 gave their lives for their country.

Boys Town is supported entirely by voluntary contributions from people who believe in Father Flanagan's philosophy that there is no such thing as a bad boy. Boys Town has never received any support from any church, local, state or federal agency or community chest.

The school system begins with the 5th grade and continues through four years of high school, fully accredited by the state of Nebraska. School is conducted by lay teachers, both men and women. There is an extensive vocational training program in addition to the academic curriculum.

Boys Town self-government program includes mayor, four councilmen and seventeen commissioners, elected for a six-month term from among the boys, by the boys themselves. Duties of city officials include actual administration of the student government program, including a boys' court which administers justice for infraction of rules of Boys Town. Punishment consists of withdrawal of privileges or assignment of additional duties. No physical punishment is used or permitted.

Boys come from every state of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, Costa Rica and the Canal Zone. At the present time citizens of Boys Town represent 44 states, the District of Columbia, the Philippines, Costa Rica and the Canal Zone.

Upon the death of Father Flanagan in Berlin, Germany in 1948 while engaged in a War Department youth welfare mission, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Nicholas H. Wegner became director of Boys Town. Father Wegner is a worthy successor to Father Flanagan having been director of St. James orphanage in Omaha for 12 years and a very close friend of Father Flanagan. Father Wegner is a boy's man. In his youth he turned down two major league baseball contracts to study for the priesthood. As a boy he was very active in all sports.

Because Father Wegner is a Catholic priest, some people think only Catholic boys are accepted; actually, however, the number of Catholic and Protestant boys is about evenly divided. Facilities for worship are provided for all religions.

The first seal issued by Boys Town consisted of a die-cut, heart-shaped design picturing a boy with arms outstretched, with inscription, "The Shrine of the Homeless Boy" at top and "Boys Town, Nebr." at bottom. This was a reddish purple shade with white lettering. Date of issuance was around 1939 or possibly earlier and this seal was used for several years.

In 1949 seals were issued in sheets of 100, each seal measuring 18x24 mm. Design showed a boy carrying a younger boy on his back with a background of snow flakes. There were three different printings of this seal, which were dated. These different printings can be separated by the varying intensity of the snow flakes and also by slight variations in color. Two of these printings were perforated 12½x12½ and the other printing was perforated 12½x12. Multicolored on white.

The 1950 seal showed the same boy as the 1949 issue but this design shows a building in the background and a window frame in front. This seal was dated and perforated 12½x12 in a sheet of 100.

During the year of 1951 an attractive sheet of 25 seals, was issued each seal measuring 49x38 mm. There were 25 different scenes depicting Boys Town, in multi-color, in the sheet and each seal was dated. Also in 1951, for the Christmas season, sheets of 100 seals were issued these seals were slightly similar to the 1950 issue and the same size except that the window frame was eliminated and at top of the seal in thick letters appeared the name "Boys Town." Perforated 12½x12.

For mid-year use in 1952 the same sheet was used as in 1951 without date. For the Christmas issue sheets of 100 seals were used showing the same boy, but in larger size, and was dated. Perforated 12½x12½.
